

Tapestries

Tethered

Tethered | Moss

This piece Tethered was hand made in 2019 for NYC Design week. It explores the tension between two elements which were formed together, being pulled apart. Structured yet loose, as if it's taking a breath between moments in life.

Based on experimentation and material integrity, each tapestry is designed by our founder Brit Kleinman. They are all one of a kind and embrace a visible touch of the hand.

We welcome commissions of all scales including large site specific installations.
